

THE WIMBLEDON HOCKEY CLUB

CHILD PROTECTION STATEMENT

The Wimbledon Club aims to create an enjoyable environment for all juniors who wish to take part in Cricket, Hockey, Squash, Tennis and (other) social activities at the club.

- The club emphasises that young people have the right to be safe, secure and free from threat.
- The club acknowledges that young people have the right to be treated with respect and for their concerns to be listened to and acted upon.
- The club will ensure that junior members have specific programmes and facilities designated for them, with adequate supervision during the sessions (it is the responsibility of parents at all other times).
- The club has procedures in place to provide help and support in a confidential basis on issues relating to Child Protection.
- The club will ensure that the Head Coach in each sport holds a coaching qualification, including DBS, First Aid and Child Protection certification, and that other coaches and assistants are sufficiently qualified.
- The club will ensure that any club members and volunteers working with young people in cricket, hockey, squash and tennis, are aware of and apply the Code of Conduct for those working with children.

The club abides by the codes of conducts and policies of the governing bodies of all four sports.
